February 4, 2011

Dear friends in Christ,

On Sunday, February 13, 2011, Maria Maynard, Assistant Superintendent of the Office of Catholic Schools will be holding a meeting for all parishioners at 2:30PM in the church hall. The scope of this meeting will be to discuss the consultative process involved with the future of Catholic Education in the town of Naugatuck and how this will affect St. Francis School. She will also be looking for constructive feedback from the parishioners of St. Francis. This meeting will be the final piece of the consultative process.

Following the meeting with parishioners, the Office of Catholic Schools, in conjunction with all the feedback received, will work in unison with Archbishop Henry J. Mansell in developing an effective plan to ensure the stability and growth of Catholic education for the present and the future here in Naugatuck.

I hope you all will be able to attend this important meeting and I look forward to seeing you on February 13, 2011.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Michael J. Slusz
Pastor
